W. B. A. CHANGES MEETING DATES

At the regular meeting of the W. B. A. Tuesday evening, it was decided to change the meeting nights from the second and fourth Tuesday to the first and third Mondays. These are to be held in the Legion clubhouse in the future. They also decided to have a food sale Saturday, April 7. The location has not been selected.

After the business meeting Mrs. Tompkins and Mrs. Lowrie read papers on the subject: "The Causes and Prevention of Tuberculosis." Caroline Stroh, president, provided a pleasant surprise for the members when the refreshments were served. The table was beautifully decorated with lavender and yellow, with large nests of candy eggs in the center of the table. Refreshments carried out the Easter idea with two huge plates of pickled hard cooked eggs, sandwiches, cake and coffee.

FIFTY GUESTS AT AUXILIARY BRIDGE

The benefit bridge luncheon given by the American Legion Auxiliary Wednesday was a success in every way. A lovely luncheon was served in the clubhouse to approximately 50 guests. Cecil Bruner roses and sweet peas decorated the luncheon tables.

The committee in charge, including Mrs. Helen Leslie, chairman, wore the new Auxiliary uniforms. They are blue smocks with Torrance written across the back, and the Legion Post number 170 on the pocket.

Bridge honors were won by Mrs. Charles Schultz, Mrs. W. J. Neelands, consolation, Mrs. R. E. Budge.

FREDERIC SHIDLER RECITAL AT HOME

Master Frederic Porter Shidler, who was heard in piano recital at Glendale last Saturday, will repeat his program on Saturday, March 31, at the home of his parents Dr. and Mrs. George P. Shidler, 1448 Post avenue, instead of at the Central Evangelical church as was announced last week.

MISS LANBRECHT TO WED ON APRIL 1

Miss Thelma Louise Lambrecht of Inglewood will become the bride of William Edward Cooper on Wednesday evening, April 11, at her home in Inglewood. Mr. Cooper is employed at the Pacific Electric station in Torrance, and will bring his bride to Torrance to reside.

MR. AND MRS. STONE ENTERTAIN AT BRIDGE

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stone entertained in their beautiful new home with a sumptuous dinner and bridge. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hines, Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Turner and Mrs. Rider, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Nelson, Mrs. Welch, Mr. and Mrs. John Young and son, John of Torrance.

MR. AND MRS. PROCTOR HOSTS AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Proctor were hosts at a delightfully appointed dinner Thursday evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Billini and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Young. Mrs. Billini favored the company with several selections on the piano.

proposed bazaar were Mrs. R. O. Barkdull, Mrs. Orrel Perry, Mrs. E. Moore, Mrs. Ardella Porter, Mrs. Raymond Trimm, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. Frank Smith, Mrs. J. M. Cooper, Mrs. Earl Kent, Mrs. Henry Kent, Mrs. Lucy Paxman, Mrs. L. V. Marsh, Mrs. W. Stanley, Mrs. H. Schug, Miss Grace Bartlett and Mrs. Floyd Thrapp. Mrs. Edwards was a visitor.

TORRANCE REBEKAHS FETE NEIGHBORS

The Torrance members of the Rebekah Lodge entertained the Harbor City and Lomita members with a party at the L. O. O. F. hall in Lomita Wednesday evening. There was a program and refreshments, and everyone reported a delightful evening.

MRS. FRANZEN GIVES FAREWELL PARTY

Mrs. Franzen of Weston street entertained at a farewell luncheon Wednesday for Mrs. Hartley who, with Mr. Hartley, leaves soon for England.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Ernest Gledhill, Mrs. Jack Wilcox of Los Angeles; Mrs. Fred Gill, Mrs. Gledhill, Mrs. Mitten, Mrs. Burby of Hermosa Beach; Mrs. Tom Willacy, Mrs. James Wilkinson, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Ernest Herring and the hostess.

HARBOR DISTRICT PRINCIPALS ENTERTAINED

The Harbor District Elementary principals were entertained at a luncheon Tuesday at Lomita Elementary School. A color scheme of yellow and green was used effectively.

Vierling Kersey gave an interesting account of the superintendent's convention held recently in Boston. Mr. Clark of the Physical Education department gave a short talk. Other supervisors present were Mr. Glenn and Miss Dobbs. Miss Clementine de Forrest Griffin and Miss Wiley of Narbonne high school were specially invited guests.

An interesting program was presented by the pupils of Miss Crowell's room.

RECEPTION GIVEN TO O. E. S. GRAND OFFICERS

The Matrons' and Patrons' Associations (O. E. S.) gave a reception in honor of the Grand officers of the Grand Chapter, State of California. The Hollenbeck Masonic Temple, Los Angeles last Saturday evening.

Charles B. Wood, Worthy Patron of Burbank Chapter gave an excellent address, and an elaborate program was presented. Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Worth, Grand Matron, was presented with a handsome Radiola, and Henry Frank Pernau, Worthy Grand Patron received a set of dishes.

Preceding the reception, the worthy grand matron was guest of honor at a dinner given by the deputy grand matrons. Last Wednesday Mrs. Pierce entertained her suite of thirty-two officers, of whom Persia K. Fess, Torrance chapter, is one, at a dinner at the Manor Inn, at Santa Barbara.

Columbia Man Is Hurt as Cars Hit

K. C. Harvey, employee of the Columbia Steel Corporation sustained serious scalp wounds last Sunday morning when the car he was driving sideswiped a coupe driven by Robert Croker of 828 Sartori avenue. Croker was making a left turn from Redondo boulevard to Cedar avenue, when he was struck by Harvey. Harvey's car skidded on the wet pavement, turned over twice, then landed on its side against a tree, completely demolished.

The front end of Croker's car was smashed, but he was unhurt. Harvey was taken to the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital where he was treated for his wounds, and remained until Monday morning. He formerly lived in Torrance, but recently moved to Redondo Beach.

Louise Lingenfeller has returned to work in the Dolley annex after a week's vacation.

Mrs. C. M. Smith Taken by Death

Well Known Lomita Woman Expires in Hospital on Monday

Mrs. Louise Audrey Smith, wife of Charles M. Smith of Lucile and Weston streets, died at the Hermosa-Redondo hospital Monday, March 26, at 4 a. m. Death followed an operation for appendicitis. Critically ill for four weeks, Mrs. Smith's condition had seemingly improved and her passing was a great shock to her family and friends who had confidently expected that she would return to her home.

Born in Chicago, her marriage to Mr. Smith took place in New York City, October 4, 1919, and in November of the same year, following Mr. Smith's discharge from the navy they came to Lomita, Mr. Smith's home since a lad.

Closely associated for four years with Mr. Smith's business in post-office and store, Mrs. Smith made many friends. Mute evidence of the high regard in which she was held is the flood of messages and floral tributes that has poured in since her passing.

Besides her husband and little son, Charles Baenziger Smith, less than 4 years old, survivors are four sisters, Mrs. Caroline Sanford, Kingston, Mass.; Mrs. Elaine Brennan, Plushing, L. I.; Mrs. Bertha L. Duff, Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Lewella Flanders of Santa Ana; and two brothers, Albert F. Baenziger of Chicago, Ill., (who is here for the funeral) and Harry Baenziger of Abington, Mass.; and several nieces and nephews, including Elaine and Wilmet Flanders, students at Narbonne high school.

Rev. E. E. Clark of Eagle Rock, former pastor of the Community Church will conduct services at 11 o'clock Friday morning, March 30. Cremation will take place at Inglewood.

Patrick F. Sheehan spent the weekend in Lucerne Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Burt drove to Puente last Sunday.

I says to Hudd

If that Mrs. Vandergilt knew her climate she would live on Hollywood Riviera instead of the French Riviera, winters.

And Hudd says, yeh and when she ain't in France or Monte Carlo or something she's chasin' around in her yacht.

And I says you mean yawt. And Hudd says well all right but anyway she lives a kind of high life.

And I says oh, I don't know, there are a lot of people right here in Torrance spend a big part of their lives just like she does.

And Hudd says aw how do ya get that way? Whadda ya mean?

And I says well a lot of them are spending a third of their lives sleeping on a Simmons' Beautyrest Mattress.

And Hudd says well you're right for once. And there will be a lot more when they find out I sell 'em on easy terms.
